I am tech-savvy. I am a leader. I am unstoppable.

I am a global citizen. I am eloquent. I am inquisitive. I am a change agent. I am visionary.

I am socially conscious. I am a global cultural diverse. I am adaptable. I am a life-long learner. I am socially conscious.

I am tech-savvy. I am a leader. I am confident. I am cultural diverse. I am adaptable. I am a life-long learner. I am socially conscious.

Students who pursue degrees in the humanities and social sciences are individuals with a passion for understanding the world, a drive to make their mark in society, and the ingenuity to build fulfilling careers that both stand the test of time and propel them into the future. Through challenging and innovative programs that provide hands-on learning experiences and skills development, students acquire the knowledge needed as a foundation for all aspects of their lives and the promise that higher education delivers.

IUPUI

Created in 1969, IUPUI combines the distinctive academic programs of two premier public universities—Indiana University and Purdue University—and awards degrees from both. With a national reputation as a leader in urban research and innovative health and life sciences, IUPUI is home to nearly 30,000 students representing all 50 states and more than 140 countries. IUPUI alumni have established successful careers across the nation and around the globe and are contributing to their communities in all parts of society. IUPUI has been recognized as an “Up-and-Coming National University” and one of the top 200 universities in the U.S.
Bachelor’s Degree Requirements
- Complete at least 120 credit hours
- Maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 (on a 4.0 scale)
- Meet course requirements set forth in the IUPUI Bulletin. bulletin.iupui.edu

Minors and Undergraduate Certificates
- Thirty minor options and several undergraduate certificates
- Minor requirements typically include 5 courses/15 credit hours
- Certificate requirements typically include 7 courses/21 credit hours
- Complement majors from within Liberal Arts and other IUPUI schools

Scholarships
IUPUI has twice been recognized nationally as the “Scholarship Provider of the Year.” The IU School of Liberal Arts provides approximately $225,000 each year in scholarships and awards. Scholarships recognize outstanding academic achievement and support student research, service projects, and participation in study abroad programs. liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship iupui.edu/~scentral

Honors Program
The Liberal Arts Honors Program provides opportunities for students with strong academic accomplishments to pursue distinctive coursework, research with faculty mentors, and participate in the IUPUI Honors College. Liberal Arts majors with at least a 3.5 GPA who also meet other criteria are eligible for consideration.

Study Abroad
Nearly 10% of recent graduates studied abroad in places such as Asia, Europe, Latin America, and Africa. Programs last for an academic year, a semester or part of a summer or holiday break. Students may participate in programs organized within the School of Liberal Arts or from across the IU system.

Internships
Internships provide students with opportunities to connect their academic studies with professional experiences across the nation and locally. Students benefit from IUPUI’s urban location and diverse assortment of businesses, corporations, and cultural institutions and acquire valuable experience in preparation for the career path of their choice.

Community Engagement and Service Learning
IUPUI is nationally recognized as a leader in both community engagement and service learning. It was named a “Savior of our Cities” and was recognized by the President of the United States with the Higher Education Community Service Award for Excellence. Liberal Arts offers a wide-range of service learning courses across its majors, and students participate in community service through student organizations, campus days of service, and scholarship programs.

Undergraduate Research
Liberal Arts students have ample opportunity to be mentored by faculty members on team-based research projects resulting in presentations at local and national conferences and publications in academic journals. Students can participate in the IUPUI Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program, the Olaniyan Scholars Program, and the Diversity Research Scholars Program, among others.

Student Life and Support
IUPUI students participate in more than 375 organizations through which they gain leadership and service experience and enrich their academic learning. Liberal Arts student groups are recognized for excellence: the Liberal Arts Student Council is a recipient of the IUPUI Student Council of the Year award, and Genesis, the campus literary journal, was named the Literary Magazine of the Year from the Indiana Collegiate Press Association. Student support programs include academic advising; study sessions, mentoring, counseling, and adaptive services.

Careers and Career Services
The Office of Career Development provides encompassing services to prepare students for their chosen career paths. Students receive individualized guidance and training on current job search techniques as well as support for reaching their long-term goals. Services include:
- Resume and cover letter assistance
- Social media profile development
- Career assessments
- Career objectives
- Classroom presentations
- Employer recruitment
- Mock interviews
- Internship connections

Admissions and Financial Aid
Priority dates for completing admission applications:
- February 1 – for scholarship consideration
- March 15 – to enroll in spring classes
- May 1 – to enroll in fall classes
- November 1 – to enroll in spring classes

Priority filing date for financial aid for the fall, spring, and summer semesters: March 10
iupui.edu/admissions

Want to know more?
Come visit us! Email sla@iupui.edu to:
- Shadow a student for a day
- Talk with a current student or faculty member
- Receive information about programs, opportunities, and scholarships

Miriam Z. Langsam Office of Student Affairs
IU School of Liberal Arts at IUPUI
Cavanaugh Hall, Fourth floor
425 University Boulevard
Indianapolis, IN, USA 46202
liberalarts.iupui.edu • sla@iupui.edu
(317) 274-2465

IUPUI