

Department of Economics Award Winners – 2011

Robert Kirk Award:

Christopher Henderson is pursuing a quantitative track in economics with minors in French and Mathematics. He has consistently maintained a cumulative GPA of 4.0 since he joined the department and has future plans to go for graduate studies in economics. Christopher maintains a full time student as well as works fulltime for the Indiana Department of natural Sciences. He is also Alumnus of the Indiana Academy for Science, Mathematics and Humanities.

The Junior Achievement Award:

Travis Mobley is voted the best junior in the department. He has a cumulative GPA of 3.7 and plans to intern this summer. His future plans are to complete a Masters in Economics and eventually get into the corporate banking world. In addition to being a full time student, he works part time and volunteers regularly for Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Relay for Life, and St. Michael's Catholic Church. Travis has been playing intramural basketball and football at IUPUI.

The Senior Achievement Award:

Lucas Wolf will be graduating with double majors in Economics and Business and double minor in French and Spanish. He has been on the Dean's list through out his academic career and has been the recipient of several awards and scholarships including The Bepko Scholars and Fellows Scholarship. Lucas has a remarkable record of extracurricular activities. He currently serves as student liaison on the General Fee Advisory, and is President of the Marketing Club, and Chancellor for the Professional Business Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi.