

Beginning with the fall semester, 2010, the English Department will have new requirements for incoming majors. Current majors will have the choice of continuing with the old requirements or switching to the new ones, listed below.

Writing & Literacy Concentration—Fall 2010 Bulletin

English majors must take at least 15 hours of 300/400 level courses in the major. A minimum grade of C is required in each course in this concentration.

Gateway Course

3 credit hours

- ENG W210 Literacy and Public Life

Concentration Core

18 credit hours

Understanding Literacy and Language (6 cr.)

Choose two (At least one must be a W course):

- ENG W262 Style and Voice for Writers
- ENG W310 Language and the Study of Writing
- ENG W366 Written Englishes: Living Cultural Realities
- ENG W390 Topics in Writing & Literacy (topics as appropriate)
- ENG W412 Technology and Literacy
- ENG Z204 Rhetorical Issues in Grammar
- ENG Z301 History of the English Language

The Practice of Writing (12 cr.) (No more than 6 TCM credits):

Group 1: Writing in Context (at least 3 cr.):

- ENG W313 The Art of Fact: Writing Nonfiction Prose
- ENG W320 Advanced Writing in the Arts and Sciences
- ENG W331 Business and Administrative Writing
- ENG W390 Writing for Social Change (or topics as appropriate)
- ENG W390 Writing Biography
- ENG W398 Writing Internship: The News Bureau
- TCM 32000 Written Communication in Science and Industry
- TCM 34000 Correspondence in Business and Industry
- TCM 35000 Visual Elements of Technical Documents
- TCM 45000 Research Approaches

Group 2: Editing, Teaching, and Publishing (at least 3 cr.)

- ENG W280 Literary Editing and Publishing
- ENG W315 Writing for the Web
- ENG W365 Theories and Practices of Editing
- ENG W390 Finding Your E-Voice (or other appropriate topics)
- ENG W396 Writing Fellows Training Seminar
- ENG W400 Issues in Teaching Writing
- ENG W426 Writing Nonfiction: Popular and Professional Publication
- ENG W496 Issues in Writing Center Work
- TCM 42500 Managing Document Quality

English Experience

9 credit hours

Film Studies or Literature (3 cr.)

Choose one 200- or higher level course:

Linguistics (3 cr.)

Choose one 200- or higher level course (or elective if a linguistics course has been taken as part of the core)

Elective (other than Writing & Literacy) (3 cr.)

Choose one 200- or higher level course in another area of the department:

Capstone

3 credit hours

Choose one:

ENG E450 Capstone Seminar

ENG W490 Senior Seminar

TOTAL

33 credit hours