

SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
IUPUI

History (HIST) Minor

The Department of History offers students the opportunity to better understand the human social condition through the systematic study of the human past. A variety of courses is offered, dealing with the history of the United States, Europe, Latin America, and some non-Western areas. Courses in history serve the student admirably in fulfilling the tradition of a liberal education. They also provide a solid basis for professional training in fields such as law, business, environmental affairs, historic preservation, public administration, and government.

A minor in History (HIST) requires satisfactory completion of the following requirements:

- Completion of properly distributed credit hour requirements for the baccalaureate degree in effect when the student was admitted to their home school
- Completion of 15 credit hours, with a minimum grade of C in each course
- All course work must be above the 200 level
- 6 credits must be completed at IUPUI
- Contact the department once the course work is completed to complete the necessary paperwork to officially declare the minor

Minor Requirements:

_____9 credit hours in either U.S. History (A-prefix courses), or European History (B-C-D-prefix courses), or African/ Asian/ Latin American History (E-F-G-prefix courses)

(Note: H-prefix courses are special topics, and their application to the above categories must be determined individually.)

_____3 credit hours in the second of the areas not selected above

For a list of class options, see the School of Liberal Arts section of the current IUPUI bulletin (on-line at: <http://bulletin.iupui.edu/>)
