THE MEDICAL HUMANITIES AND HEALTH STUDIES PROGRAM PRESENTS

SEMINARS IN MEDICAL HUMANITIES AND HEALTH STUDIES

Seminars for the Spring 2016 Semester

Now available for CME credit. See individual flyers for more

Monday, January 25th
Lucia D. Wocial, PhD, RN
“Conversations on Dying”
12:00 Noon - 1:00 pm
Campus Center, CE 307

Monday, February 29th
Peter H. Schwartz, MD, PhD
“Translational Bioethics: From Patients to Philosophy and Back”
Part of Annual Career Day Event
12:00 Noon - 1:00 pm
Campus Center Room, 405

Thursday, April 14th
Please note date & room change
Brandon Brown, MD
“Caring for the Person or the Public? Technology, Efficiency, and Uncertainty”
12:00 Noon - 1:00 pm
Campus Center, CE 268

Wednesday, April 27th
Carly Schall, PhD
“A Political History of Patient-Centered Care”
12:00 Noon - 1:00 pm
Campus Center, CE 307

For more information about MHHS seminars, visit
http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/mhhs/lectures/

Related Talks:
Co-sponsored by John Shaw Billings History of Medicine Society
IU Student History of Medicine Interest Group
McCarthy History of Medicine Lecture Series

Tuesday, February 9th
Elizabeth Nelson, Ph.D.
“The Museum of Madness’ at the Villejuif Asylum in Paris in 1900”
4:30 pm, Medical Library, IB 307

Wednesday, March 23rd
Angie Potter, Doctoral Student, Purdue University
“From Hygiene to Health: Indiana University's Dr. Thurman Rice”
4:30 pm, Medical Library, IB 307