Medical Humanities & Health Studies Student Interest Group

Brand New!

The purpose of this organization is to cultivate interest in the field of Medical Humanities and Health Studies amongst any and all IUPUI undergraduate students.

The MHHS Student Interest Group will:

1. Host events to introduce students to the field of Medical Humanities and Health Studies

2. Provide avenues to attain useful information for students who are in the process of applying to graduate school

3. Assist students in the location and selection of mentors and research opportunities
