THE RELIGIOUS STUDIES STUDENT ASSOCIATION PROUDLY ANNOUNCES

Combative Christianity on Campus -

ON THE OFFENSIVE OR JUST OFFENSIVE?

You've seen them, you've heard them. They come to campus each year and every semester:

- Who are these groups, what is their history, what is their agenda, what is their theology?
- What is the University's policy about such groups: are they free to use the campus for proselytization purposes? Is University property considered public or private? Do these groups infringe on rules about hate speech? Or are their actions protected as free speech?
- How can or should students and faculty respond?

This event will also provide a space for students to talk about their reactions to - and thoughts about - these groups and, potentially, to press the administration for changes to their policy.
