for Part One of a 2-Part Series on Religion & Pilgrimage

November 6

Pilgrimage is one of the most ancient ritual practices in human history. Even today, more than 330 million people around the world – from all walks of life – journey to a sacred place each year. Friday, November 6, the Religious Studies Student Association (RSSA) makes its own pilgrimage to the world-acclaimed Children’s Museum. Through awe-inspiring immersive environments created with photography from National Geographic, we will observe, discuss, and try to understand some of the sacred journeys made by people around the world.

25 tickets will be made available on a first-come, first-serve basis.
To reserve your ticket, please see Lisa Weireter, Cavanaugh Hall 331 weekdays between 7:30am - 3:30pm

Then come join the RSSA once more for pizza, drinks and for Religion & Pilgrimage, Part Two a panel discussion on sacred journeys Thursday, November 12, 6pm
in the Lilly Auditorium
