University Writing Center Services for ESL Writers

What we offer: The UWC offers free writing support for IUPUI students of all ability levels and language backgrounds. Students may sign up for three visits per week but only one session per day. Sessions are 45 minutes long.

How to find us: We are located on the 4th floor of Cavanaugh Hall (CA427) and on the second floor of the University Library (UL2125).

How to sign up: To schedule a session, visit http://uwconline.iupui.edu, stop in to one of our locations, or call us at 274-2049 or 278-8171. Tutoring is available in both locations Monday through Friday (hours vary) and Saturday in UL. You must have a campus e-mail address to sign up.

Types of Tutors: There are several types of tutors in the UWC.
   PEERS are students who have completed training to be tutors.
   FACULTY have taught writing at the college level.
   EAP/ESL FACULTY have taught ESL at the college level.

All of the UWC tutors can help you with your writing.

Things to remember:

1. You can come at any point in the writing process, from when you first get an assignment to when you are turning in the final draft.
2. Bring your teacher’s name and e-mail address if you would like us to send a note that says you came to the UWC.
3. It is helpful to bring assignment sheets, class notes, teacher comments and reading materials.
4. As the semester progresses our schedule fills up, so plan ahead.
5. The UWC is not a proofreading service. Your tutor is a writing PARTNER. Your role is to work with your tutor, through dialogue, to improve your writing.
6. Also, come with an open mind. Tutors look at all aspects of writing, from big ideas to commas.
