I. SLA Faculty Medal of Academic Distinction

Awarded to a STUDENT for OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE

Qualifications:
- at least 60 credit hours taken at IUPUI;
- a grade point average of at least 3.5;
- a graduation date of December 2004 or May/August 2005;
- broad academic talent, i.e., excellence in multiple disciplines; and meritorious participation in extracurricular activities (broadly conceived)

The recipient of this award will be honored at the SLA Honors Convocation in April 2005.

Submit letters of nomination and any supporting materials to: [Chair of Faculty Affairs Committee]. All nominations and materials must be received by [Date TBA].

In the event that no strong nominations are received, the committee reserves the right to make no award.

II. The SLA Outstanding Tenure-Line Faculty Award

Awarded to JUNIOR OR SENIOR TENURE-LINE FACULTY who have distinguished themselves in TEACHING, RESEARCH, and/or SERVICE.

Each nomination must include a supporting statement for the nomination, and a copy of the nominee’s curriculum vitae. It is also helpful to include student and peer evaluations; supporting letters from colleagues and/or students; and a copy of the nominee’s most recent annual report.

Nominators have complete responsibility for supporting their recommendations with clear, concrete, succinct documentation. They may choose to address any of the following elements of the nominee’s performance at IUPUI:
- Service to students; classroom teaching; scholarship and research; visibility (i.e., collegiality, participation, cooperation); maturity (i.e., quality of judgment, performance, attitude); service to chosen discipline (any level, including interdisciplinary contributions); innovation (e.g. of programs, courses, or events, both academic and nonacademic); university citizenship (including the cumulative effect of contributions over many years).

The recipients of these awards will be honored at the SLA Faculty Assembly in April 2005.

Submit nominations and supporting materials to: [Chair of Faculty Affairs Committee]. All nominations and materials must be received by [Date TBA].

In the event that no strong nominations are received, the committee reserves the right to make no award.
III. The SLA Outstanding Lecturer Award
Awarded to NON-TENURE LINE LECTURERS or SENIOR LECTURERS who have distinguished themselves in TEACHING and SERVICE.

Each nomination must include a supporting statement for the nomination, and a copy of the nominee’s curriculum vitae. It is also helpful to include student and peer evaluations, supporting letters from colleagues and/or students; and a copy of the nominee’s most recent annual report.

Nominators have complete responsibility for supporting their recommendations with clear, concrete, succinct documentation. They may choose to address any of the following elements of the nominee’s performance at IUPUI:
Service to students; classroom teaching; visibility (i.e., collegiality, participation, cooperation); maturity (i.e., quality of judgment, performance, attitude); service to chosen discipline (any level, including interdisciplinary contributions); innovation (e.g. of programs, courses, or events, both academic and nonacademic); university citizenship (including the cumulative effect of contributions over many years).

The recipients of these awards will be honored at the SLA Faculty Assembly in April 2005.

Submit nominations and supporting materials to: [Chair of Faculty Affairs Committee]. All nominations and materials must be received by [Date TBA].

In case no strong nominations are received, the committee reserves the right to make no award.

IV. The SLA Outstanding Part-Time Faculty Award
Awarded to JUNIOR OR SENIOR TENURE-LINE FACULTY who have distinguished themselves in TEACHING, RESEARCH, and/or SERVICE.

Each nomination must include a supporting statement for the nomination, and a copy of the nominee’s curriculum vitae. It is also helpful to include student and peer evaluations and supporting letters from colleagues and/or students.

Nominators have complete responsibility for supporting their recommendations with clear, concrete, succinct documentation. They may choose to address any of the following elements of the nominee’s performance at IUPUI:
Service to students; classroom teaching; visibility (i.e., collegiality, participation, cooperation); maturity (i.e., quality of judgment, performance, attitude); service to chosen discipline (any level, including interdisciplinary contributions); innovation (e.g. of programs, courses, or events, both academic and nonacademic); university citizenship (including the cumulative effect of contributions over many years).

The recipients of these awards will be honored at the SLA Faculty Assembly in April 2005.

Submit nominations and supporting materials to: [Chair of Faculty Affairs Committee]. All nominations and materials must be received by [Date TBA].

In case no strong nominations are received, the committee reserves the right to make no award.