MEDICAL HUMANITIES & HEALTH STUDIES
SEMINAR SERIES PRESENTS

“Reflections on the Body: Living Organ Donation”

By Macey Henderson, J.D.,
Co-founder, HERO Network

Monday, February 25, 2013
12:00 Noon—1:00 PM
Campus Center 305

Henderson, a Medical Humanities & Health Studies alumna, will discuss living donor organ donation in the U.S. and abroad, the altruistic non-related donors, donor chains, and how social media plays a role in soliciting for potential donors.

Discussion will include: property rights to our own body parts, a short personal narrative, and donation stories with less than perfect outcomes.

Pizza will be served.

Please RSVP to medhum@iupui.edu.

Don’t forget the 2013 Careers in Medical Humanities & Health Studies, same room, 10:30AM—12 noon & 1:15PM—4:00PM!
