William H. Schneider
Medical Humanities Student Essay Award

Sponsored by the IUPUI Medical Humanities & Health Studies Scholarship Fund

Deadline for Submission: February 1, 2019

Eligible essays are papers written by current undergraduate or graduate/professional students for a course taken at the IUPUI campus on a topic that utilizes the perspectives of the humanities or social sciences (i.e., economic, ethical/philosophical, legal, social, historical) to gain a broader understanding of medicine and healthcare. Both undergraduate and graduate course papers can be submitted for this competition, however, graduate theses and dissertations are not eligible for this award.

Essay Submission Requirements:
1. Papers must be of high quality, earning an A+, A, or A- grade in a 200-level or higher course taken at IUPUI within the preceding 18 months.
2. Minimum page length: 5 double-spaced pages, excluding cover page and references.
3. Single-author papers only (no group or shared-credit papers)
4. Submit a separate cover page document with the following information:
   a. Paper title
   b. Course for which it was written, e.g., HIST-H 364 History of Medicine & Public Health
   c. Student (author) Name, E-mail address, and status at time paper was written
   d. Instructor Name
   e. Date of submission for grade
5. The paper document must have page numbers and a running title, but NO OTHER identifying information.
6. Submit entry as an attached MS WORD or pdf document via AcademicWorks by midnight, February 1st.

Entries not complying with the above requirements cannot be considered for this award

Selection Process: Papers will be judged by the Medical Humanities Program Committee, and the award will be announced at the 2019 Medical Humanities & Health Studies Graduation Reception & Awards Event. Undergraduate papers are judged separately from graduate papers.
