

INDIANAPOLIS MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Moderator application 2018

Would you like to lead a debate and make some money during the Spring Break?

Be a moderator for the Indianapolis Model United Nations Conference at IUPUI.

The job of the moderator is to oversee meetings and facilitate the flow of a debate. The moderator should be able to direct the discussion, implement the rules of procedure, and provide the right to speak and make announcements.

Commitments: Attend three training sessions (Dates TBA).
Perform your role at the Conference (March 15th–16th).

Stipend Amount: $200 (for 100% participation at training sessions and conference).

Application deadline: February 16, 2018.

For more information, contact Hadya Sow at hsow@iupui.edu or Olivia Smith at imun.osmith@gmail.com.

Indianapolis Model UN Moderator Application

Personal information
First name		Last name
Date of birth		University ID
Major		Current GPA

Contact information
IUPUI Email address
Primary phone number
Local address

Experience
Please list any MUN or additional relevant experience:
Briefly describe your interest in participating in IMUN as moderator:

References
Please list names and emails of IUPUI faculty who can attest to your work ethic and your ability to lead. IMUN directors will contact them for verification. Be certain to obtain information from your referees in advance.

Committee choices
Please list your top three preferred committees to moderate (from list in the box below).
First:	Second:	Third:
DISEC, ECOSOC, ICC, OHCHR, UNEP, UNESCO, UNHCR, UNODC, WHO, General Assembly, Security Council		